Report of Violation of Conditions of Pretrial Release

COMES NOW Robert Honstein, U.S. Probation Officer, presenting a report to the court upon the conduct of defendant, Albert Cenicerros, who was placed on pretrial release supervision by the Honorable U.S. Magistrate Judge Jeffrey L. Cureton sitting in the court at Fort Worth, Texas, on April 7, 2016, under the following conditions:

- (1) The defendant must not violate any federal, state or local law while on release.
- (7m) The defendant must not use or unlawfully possess a narcotic drug or other controlled substances defined in 21 U.S.C. § 802, unless prescribed by a licensed medical practitioner.

The undersigned has information that the defendant has violated such conditions in each of the following respects:

On April 26, 2016, the defendant contacted U.S. Probation Officer Robert Honstein and stated he was on his way to the U.S. Probation Office to discuss an urgent matter. The defendant reported to the probation office and admitted he used methamphetamines the day before at an associate's house. The defendant stated he was stressed because he is unemployed and his landlord has been threatening to evict him and his mother. The defendant was admonished and advised that his violation could result in his bond being revoked. A plan was devised with the defendant to help him with his employment and social needs. The defendant stated that he is willing to address his drug relapse violation with the court and that relapse will not happen again.

The undersigned suggests to the court that no action be taken at this time. The defendant is participating in intensive outpatient drug treatment and is no longer testing positive for illicit drugs.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.
